The undersigned, as trustees for the present owners, WILL SELL AT AUCTION,

TO-MORROW,

THURSDAY, MAY 22,

HENRY CHAUSIN, Jr., Trustee.
ADOLF LIVINGSTON, Trustee.

These lots are on or immediately proximity to the Eastern Boulevard, which, according to act of Legislature, runs from Avenue A to Fifty-second to Eighty-ninth Streets, thence to Harlem River and through Seventy-second-st. from Avenue A to Central Park, and are in close vicinity of the terminus of the Long Island City Bridge, which will connect New York with Long Island City, and within a few minutes of the new Harlem Steamboat Landing, bringing them within twenty minutes from Fulton Ferry.

They are situated on high ground, affording an extensive view over the Hudson River, Long Island Sound, Hell Gate, and surrounding waters.

The removing of the Hell Gate obstructions is to be completed by July fourth, this year, which will undoubtedly increase the value of this property very materially.

Seller per cent may remain on bond and mortgage.
